

Panelist's Contract and Guidelines

Panelist Requirements

Panelists must check in and pick up their panel badge June 9 or 10, 2017 in the hours between 9am and 12pm.

Depending on circumstances, failure to check in or show up for your panel will result in cancellation of the panel. Please give as much notice as possible if you are not able to host your panel.

All Panelists must fill out the application and submit it no later than May 12, 2017.

Panelist Conduct

Panelists will be expected to behave in an appropriate manner. Behavior deemed inappropriate for panels where minors (those under 18 years of age) may attend can result in the termination of a panel in progress. Clean-up after each panel is expected. Please be considerate to the next panelist that will be setting up after your panel.

Panelists will abide by Nu Con Convention Inc's General Policies. Failure to do so may be reasonable cause for cancellation of the panel and/or ejection from Nu Con Convention Inc.

Disclaimer

Nu Con Convention reserves the right to approve, deny, reschedule the time and/or location of, change the given rating of or cancel any panel at any time as event staff deems fit. Nu Con convention reserves the right to make changes to any of the above requirements at any time. Any such changes may be retroactive at the discretion of Nu Con Convention Inc.

Nu Con Convention accepts no responsibility for the content of panels hosted by its attendees, nor does Nu Con Convention extend any form of legal protection to panelists.

Panelists are wholly responsible for ensuring the legality and safety of the content presented in their panels.

By submitting your application, you have agreed to abide by Nu Con Convention General Policies and the rules and regulations posted above.
